WHAT WILL YOU CREATE TODAY?

Creating Extraordinary Leaders in Life and Work

About David "Emerald" Womeldorff

David brings nearly 30 years of experience in leadership training and fostering collaboration to his public speaking & seminar facilitation. He is widely regarded for his gift of "translating important ideas in a way that others find practical and useful." As an individual facilitator and speaker, David is an advocate for creating a vision-focused and passion-based way of being and taking action in one's personal, professional and organization life.

David is co-founder, along with his wife Donna Zajonc, of The Bainbridge Leadership Center (Bainbridge Island, WA). The focus of the Center is on "Facilitating Emergent Leadership for an Integral World" and provides individuals, groups and organizations within the public and private sectors with education, facilitation and coaching services.

David is also author of The Power of TED (The Empowerment Dynamic), an inspiring story of personal leadership and transformation that touches all facets of life.

"David ... was at once abstract intelligent and complex, yet grounded, intuitive and wise. The way he held the ideas—as well as the group itself—was flexible, savvy, appropriately complex and creative... I left with new tools for the kit."

~Larry Daloz, Associate Director, Whidbey Institute, and co-author, Common Fire

Sample Presentation & Seminar Topics

Creating Cultures of Empowerment—requires much more than delegating responsibility and authority. It demands a particular orientation to work – and life – that cultivates relationships which create high fulfillment and peak performance in serving clients and customers. This keynote address will inspire and challenge you to shift your ways of thinking and taking action and point the way to harnessing "The Empowerment Dynamic (TED)" in your organization!

TED*: The Cure for the Epidemic of Victimhood—Victimhood is a form of self-identity and a way of being that has reached epidemic proportions in our organizations, our communities and, indeed, our world. TED* (The Empowerment Dynamic*) challenges Victimhood by providing a compelling alternative to the daily drama that so often characterizes our relationships in our personal and professional lives. Audiences will learn how to begin to make the shift from Victim to Creator and to encourage the same in others!

Applying "The Power of TED*" @ Work: A New Leadership Dynamic—Traditional perspectives on leadership set up an unrealistic expectation that leaders will emerge as heroes to rescue followers from whatever the problems of the day may be! The audience will be challenged to shift their focus of leadership from reacting to problems to creating outcomes in service to the mission and purpose of the organization. Leaders will discover ways to enhance their roles as Creator, Challenger, and Coach and begin to move from an Heroic to a Collaborative style of leadership. (Keynote Speech or Seminar)

Creating Powerful Partnerships—Based on David's nearly 30 years of observing and applying the lessons of collaboration in all kinds of organizations, participants will learn the about Seven Agreements for Accelerating Collaboration that form the basis of powerful partnerships capable of producing sustainable results. This presentation and/or seminar focuses on ways of thinking, interacting and taking action that create outcomes and build healthy and productive working relationships. (Keynote Speech or Seminar)

Rekindling Your Fire—This speech challenges audiences to reclaim their passion for their profession and service to society. Participants will discern ways to move from a problem-focused way of serving to creating passion-based outcomes for themselves and their clients/customers. By learning how to harness The Power of TED (The Empowerment Dynamic), participants will rekindle their passion for their chosen profession. (Keynote Speech or Seminar)
