

Testimonials for David Emerald

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

THE RIGHT TOUCH...

"David Womeldorff is a master facilitator who guides with just the right touch. When to step in and when to lay back is always a challenge. It is David's sensitivity to the needs of the group that sets him a class apart."

*Leo Burke, Ph.D.
Director of Executive Education
Mendoza College of Business

INSIGHTFUL

Participant and Audience Comments

- You are awesome, you don't just teach us by talking....but by walking.
- Really motivational and useful information.
- Many interesting and useful ideas. His visuals were clear and helpful.
- Good adjustment to include the peculiarities of our group.
- I find Dave's ideas and thoughts intellectually stimulating. He really shares part of himself with each group.
- His commitment and drive is contagious.
- David...
 - truly devotes his life to helping others improve themselves.
 - brings a passion... that is passed on to all.
 - is truly gifted... It is easy to see that he lives and loves what he teaches.
 - gave great insights on leadership...(He) really knows how to keep the attention span going.
 - knows the material inside and out and is very good at communicating its real world use.
 - has an exceptional ability to synthesize key points to drive effective learnings and learning takeaways.
 - is an extremely knowledgeable, straight to the point person. He understands the subject matter AND how to deliver it in a "non-aggressive" manner. This leads to it getting received clearly (and) concisely without objection.

PROFESSIONAL

"It is rare to find speakers who meet all the expectations of a meeting planner. Not only did you succeed in meeting the deadlines, your ability to work with the flow of the meeting space certainly made the planning process and delivery much smoother. It was indeed a pleasure to work with a professional as organized and responsive as you. In addition, your presentation to the group was a huge success, due to your talent and your dedication to the program."
